THE BOYS ARE BACK IN TOWN

LOGAN, UT- Back by popular demand, the Bar-J Wranglers return to the Ellen Eccles Theatre for their 6th Annual Christmas Concert. The Bar J Wranglers, from Jackson, Wyoming, are considered by many to be one of the funniest cowboy singing groups in the world and are one of the local holiday favorite. The Bar-J Wranglers will bring their homespun humor and delightful holiday charm to the Ellen Eccles Theatre, on Saturday, December 2, at 1:30 p.m. & 7:30 p.m.

“Why go all the way to Jackson when you can capture their wit and charm right here at the elegant Ellen Eccles Theatre” said Wally Bloss, executive director of the Cache Valley Center for the Arts. “Each year the Bar-J Wranglers fans line up to get the best seats in the house to this splendid event.”

These tried and true Jackson Hole cowpokes are known for their splendid harmonies – don’t forget a little cowboy poetry and a lot of down –home humor. Working their magic from coast to coast for more than 24 years, the Bar J Wranglers deliver some of the purest harmony, best musicianship and funniest ranch humor ever seen on stage. Some folks call it a western music show; some call it a stand-up comedy show with masterful cowboy music; others call it the best musical experience in the west. Call it what you want to -- the fact remains; The Bar J Wranglers are a true western classic.

The Bar J Wranglers perform seven nights per week during the summer months, entertaining 700 nightly, at the acclaimed Bar J Chuckwagon. During their off season, the Wranglers perform all over the world, bringing their style of western music, stellar harmony, outrageous comedy and remarkable musicianship to people of all ages and backgrounds. They have entertained for local, regional and national conventions throughout the west and have been hired for hundreds of city concerts, holiday parties and other smaller venues. They have been featured on TNN with Roy Rogers, Dale Evans and Randy Travis, as well as live performances on the Discovery Channel and the Travel Network.

Tickets for this toe-tapping, side-splitting event are $21, $18, $17, and $12.
