

ARTWORK SUBMISSION FORM

Our Mission:

The mission of the Alliance for the Varied Arts is to promote the arts by providing art education, organizing artistic events, and supporting local artists.

The AVA gallery strives to support local artists by providing an outlet for the exhibition and sale of artwork. Exhibitions are selected by competitive application.

Terms

1. The Alliance for the Varied Arts hereby accepts possession of the artwork listed and agrees to act as agent in the selling of artwork. It is understood and agreed that the AVA retains the right to make all final decisions regarding quantity and quality of artwork to be displayed, location, placement and rotation of displays, and all other matters relating to the sale and display of artwork of the Artist during the time such artwork is placed on the business premises of the AVA.

2. The Artist agrees to submit to the AVA only artwork created by him/her.

3. Ownership to the artwork shall at all times remain with the Artist. Upon sale of the artwork, ownership shall pass directly to the purchaser from the Artist. AVA is the consignee only.

4. If artwork is available for sale it will be at a price set by the Artist and will not require written or oral consent. The AVA's commission shall be 30% of the retail sales price. The AVA will remit net proceeds of sales to the Artist within 30 days past the end of the return policy date of the actual sale.

5. Any shipping and shipping insurance (required) of artwork to and from the AVA shall be the responsibility of the Artist. If after 5 days of the pick up date the artwork is not removed by the artist, the AVA shall have the right to return any unsold artwork to the Artist at the expense of the Artist.

6. Artwork is displayed at the artist's risk and is not insured against loss or damage. The AVA reserves the right to refuse artwork. Works on paper must be framed behind plexiglass or silica glass. The AVA will not be responsible for normal wear and tear such as small scratches on frames, plexiglass or glass.
